All activities described were performed on behalf of the Korea Trade Promotion Corporation (KOTRA), Seoul, Republic of Korea, a trade promotion agency funded by the Korean government since its founding in 1962.

Activities during the reporting period have been concentrated on encouraging American companies to increase their exports to Korea to correct the trade imbalance between the two countries, and to help reduce America's trade deficit with Korea. These activities have been carried out and coordinated with the U.S. Department of Commerce and Small Business Administration, state trade agencies acting as sponsoring organizations for seminars and other meeting, to which representatives of the Korea Trade Promotion Center were invited as participants. Purpose of these activities was to brief local companies on opportunities open for exporting to Korea and/or other countries enjoying trade surpluses with the U.S. Invitations and arrangements for these meetings were organized and sponsored by federal and state agencies concerned. Mr. Sung Ho CHO, Executive Director, participated as a guest speaker and panel member at seminars in North Carolina, West Virginia, Harrisburg, (Continued on Attached Sheet)

¹The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)
